

1st Corinthians

CHAPTER 1:18-25

1) The Message of the Cross

A. Offensive to human wisdom

B. Contrary to human wisdom

C. The power of God's wisdom

2) The human response to the Cross

A. Some stumbled at the message

B. Some laughed at the message

C. Some believed the message

1) Do you believe the message of the Cross is the solution to mankind's deepest problems?

Why or why not?

2) Share a personal testimony of how the power of the Cross has changed your life.

3) Has God ever done something in your life that made no sense at all but proved to be the best possible solution for your life?

Tell the group about it!

4) How does the message of the Cross create & maintain unity in a local body of believers?

5) How would you explain the necessity of the Cross to an unbeliever who finds the whole idea of a substitutionally sacrifice offensive?

6) Do you have any issues in your life which you would like to bring to the foot of the Cross?

If you're comfortable doing so ask the group to pray that God would free you by the power of the Cross.
