1) Without naming names share a personal experience in which a Christian took advantage of you, or never paid a debt owed to you.

How did that make you feel?

What did you do about it?

2) Having studied 1 Cor. 6:1-11 would you handle the situation differently today?

Why or why not?

3) Read the account in Matthew 18:21-35

How would you apply Jesus' teaching toward a person who refused, or could not, repay what they owed you?

4) Share a personal experience in which God compensated what you lost as a result of following His instructions in 1 Cor. 6:7.

5) What might be some limitations to Paul's instructions in 1 Cor. 6:1-11?
